Mother's Day/Father's Day Poetry Unit

This poetry unit is a great way to introduce students to various types of "form" poetry and give them an authentic audience at the same time. To teach this unit:

- 1. Photocopy a packet of the six planning sheets for each student.
- 2. Make an overhead transparency of each planning sheet.
- 3. Select one type of poem to introduce each day. Explain the format of the poem. Show samples if you have any. Model each step on the planning sheet on the overhead.
- 4. After each step is modeled, have students complete that step on their sheets.
- 5. Repeat this process each day until each poem is completed.
- 6. Revise and edit poems.
- 7. Have students copy the revised poems onto good paper.
- 8. Bind each student's final drafts into a book.
- 9. Have students write a title and illustrate the cover and each page.
- 10. Have students wrap the books to give as presents.

Acrostic Poem Planning Sheet

Write you	ır family member's name here.
	as many words as you can that describe this person. The buld all begin with letters from the person's name.
Write the name going down . Write the letters in capital letters and make them dark. Pick some of the words from your list. Use them to form a phrase or sentence for each letter.

Cinquain Poem Planning Sheet

Line 1 - Write your family member's name here. This will be the title.
Line 2 - Think of two-word phrases that describe your topic. Circle the phrase you like best.
Line 3 - Think of three-word phrases that tell something the topic can do. Circle the phrase you like best.
Line 4 - Think of four-word phrases that describe a feeling about your topic. Circle the phrase you like best.
Line 5 - Think of one word that refers back to you title. Write it here.
Copy your cinquain here.

Copyright © by Annemarie Johnson

Bio-Poem Planning Sheet

	(person's first name)
	(3 adjectives describing the person)
Who feels
Who needs
Who fears
Who gives
Who would lik	e to see
	(nerson's last name)

Simile Poem Planning Sheet

(person's name)
Make a list of adjectives that describe the person.
Write similes to compare your topic to something else. Be sure to use "like" or "as". (Example: My mom is: As pretty as a rose. As hard-working as a honeybee.) is:

Rhyming Couplet Planning Sheet

(Title) Write your first sentence here. Be sure to end with a word that will be easy to rhyme.
·
Make a list of words that rhyme with the last word of your sentence
Write three rhyming sentences here.
Write your rhyming couplet poem here.
(Example: I have a mom who's swell, She likes the NFL. I have a mom who's swell, She can cook real well. I have a mom who's swell, My secrets she'll never tell.

Two-Word Poem Planning Sheet

					nner, etc.)

hink of an ad	•	•		•
irases here. vid reader, sl		_	ook, caring	nurse, tal	ented mechan
•	ŕ

					